Teaching Out of the Box

Session 1 ~ Out of the Box

This session will focus on how we, as Christian art educators, need to think and teach “OUT OF THE BOX.” By challenging ourselves to take risks, explore materials and push boundaries, we set the tone for our students to do the same. As Francis Schaffer has said: “The Christian is the one whose imagination should soar beyond the stars!” Let’s “fan into flames the gifts of God” so that our work shines with the glory of the gospel.

Session 2 ~ Group Projects

We will look at the work of Juan Miro and Mola designs by the Cuna tribe in Panama. We will continue to explore the value of integrating art history and multi-cultural art appreciation into the classroom.

Session 3 ~ Show and Tell

During this session, all teachers should come prepared to share some of their inspirational projects, personal experiences and questions. It is an Open Forum for “idea gathering” and a time for mutual encouragement.
